LOOK ALIVE

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

What's it all about? In Cullowhee there's always something going on if you're willing to look. However, if you don't get a rush from Speedy's, the Town House, or the Cat House, look around; there's the Great Smokey Mountains Park, the Blue Ridge Parkway, the Starlight Disco in Waynesville, Doc's and The Cosmic Ballroom in Asheville, and now there's beer in Sylva! What more could you want!?

WHAT ELSE?

What else? Well after all, there's no more trips "over the hump" to Waynesville for the weeks quota of beer. The new airport gives everybody a thrill in one way or another, whether by watching a golden sunset or muddy erosion. Of course one must not forget the entertainment achieved by those few sparing partners who take a delight in writing letters to the Western Carolinian about each other to let us all know the "real" truth about "petty politics". No matter what your style; there's something somewhere close by to make you smile.

PEOPLE

People. Sure enough there's people around here. There's an uncanny aire that seems to characterize a Western Carolinian. Maybe a smile, a genuine laugh, or even a proud and somewhat arrogant face causes visitors to take a second glance. People are necessary as a means of comparison, and not to mention good companionship.

PLACES

Places. Have you ever seen a sunset from Water Rock Knob? Have you ever tubed or canoed down the Tuckaseigee? Have you ever been swimming or skiing at Bear Lake? Have you ever been hiking on the Appalachian Trail? Have you ever been to Cherokee, Cashiers, Highlands or Gatlinburg? Have you ever walked on a country road on a sunny day? Have you ever slid down snowy banks in the winter? Have you ever looked at Western at night? Need more be said? Just take a look around you.

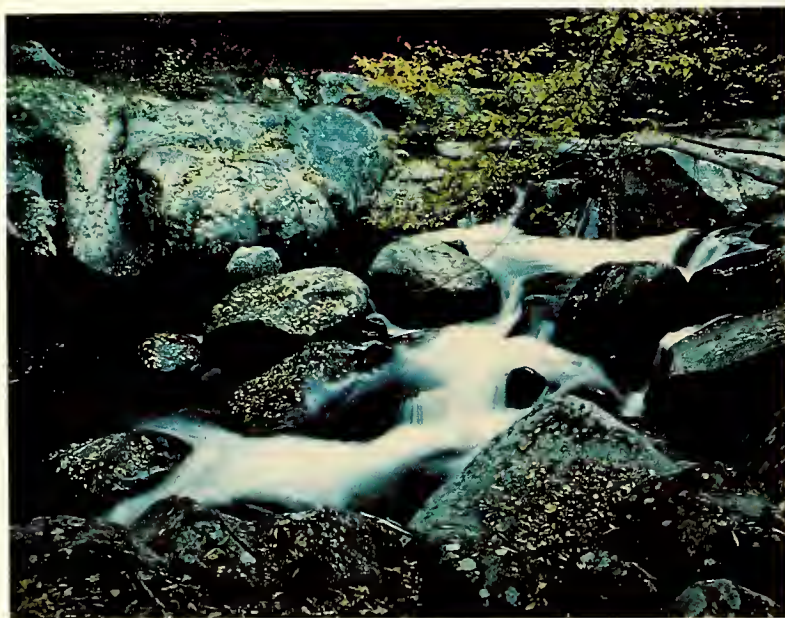

SUPER LIVING

Super living. Enjoying life is what it's all about. One thing we all have in common is that we're here with the hopes that by spending time at Western we will one day be much happier. So why not make the best out of our days in Cullowhee? With a lighter attitude we can see a better perspective on things. Worrying, responsibility and ambition are all qualities that should enhance happiness not override it! Remember that, and have a good time!

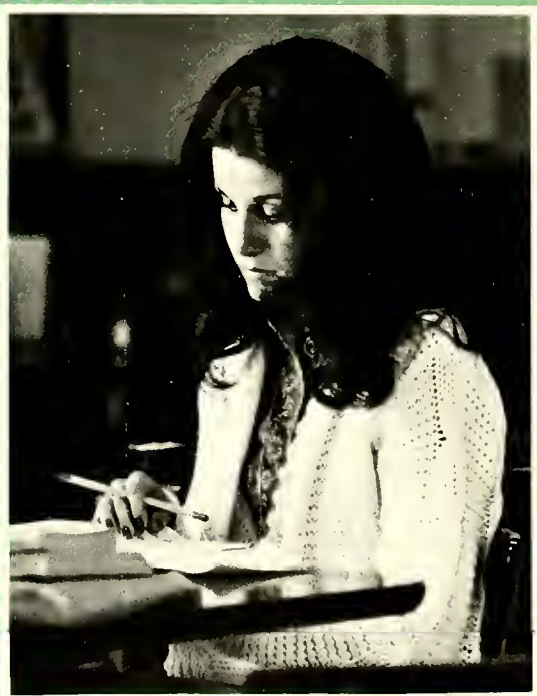

SIMPLE THINGS

Simple things. Do you ever notice the simple things in life, or are they taken for granted? Do you appreciate a beautiful flower or sunset? What about songs that touch you in a special way? Do you ever appreciate a falling star on a cloudless, starry night? What about a smile on a rainy day? Sometimes we're so involved with the big things that catch our eye we seem to forget the little, simple things. What's your favorite simple thing? Now, think about it.

QUIET TIMES

Quiet times. We all need time to sit and reflect on all the things about us. We often get so wound up with our problems we never take enough time and try to think them out. In our most busy would we live in. It's imperative we relax and get ourselves together. How can we conquer the world if we're not in gear with ourselves? Slow down and give a glance to the inside.

AND, GIVING A DAMN!

And, giving a damn! Why are we at Western? I think we're here to better ourselves in some way that will make us happy and give us a place in the world. That's why it's so important that we care! Not just about ourselves, but we should care about our friends, problems, and goals. If we don't care who ever will? You can't say someone else because we are someone else! Take note and give a damn for yourself as well as everyone else.

Cats claw Marshall

by STEVE SURLES
Staff Writer

Western Carolina Catamounts pulled off the upset of their surprising season with a 67-50 Marshall University in the first round of the Southern Conference tournament in Reid Gym Saturday.

With a stingy defense to complement 22 points from Person, the Cats never trailed as they won their way to the S.C. tournament semi-finals in Roanoke, Va. on March 3, to play old rival Appalachian State. Underdog Herd of Marshall, although finishing second in the regular season behind WCU was the favorite, as they had beaten the Cats 69-54 and 80-68 in two meetings during the season.

They were never in the game past the early going. They were never able to get their offense untracked. Leading scorers for the season, Bunny Gibson and George Washington (16.6) scored two apiece, 10 points respectively while point guard Greg White had five field goals and only two free throws. The Cats jumped out to an 8-0 lead in the first half.

The Herd came back to close the margin to 1, 8-7 at the 12:45 mark, on three baskets by Ken Labanowski and a foul shot by Robert Price.

With the score only 12-9 the Cats' Terry Rutherford picked up his third foul, joining Eric Taylor on the WCU bench. In came substitutes Hal Dolan and Eric Young to give the Cats a big boost. With Dolan the 6'9" Junior from Palm Beach scoring six points in the remaining 11 minutes of the half and grabbing three rebounds.

With 4:45 left in the half, Larry Caldwell's steal and lay-up gave the Cats their biggest lead to that point 24-15. They gradually added to the margin, with Ray Person's drive with four seconds giving the Cats a 34-22 lead and his 14th point before intermission.

The Cats kept the momentum up after the half, using an aggressive spread offense and inside game to power to a 38-24, 19-point advantage with 13:33 left in the second half. Terry Rutherford's rebound and lay-up with 7:36 left gave the Cats their biggest lead, a whopping 54-33. Marshall closed the game 15, 56-41 with 4:43 remaining.

Western played a near flawless game, making only four turnovers in the first half), and allowing only 39 Marshall shots in the entire game. They forced 14 Herd miscues, and outrebounded the visitors 42-26.

Every Catamount player saw some action with ten of the 11 scoring. Person's 22 points came on eight field goals and six foul shots. Ray also added seven assists and five steals in a brilliant effort. Rutherford canned nine points and 11 rebounds in only 17 minutes of play with Greg Dennis scoring eight points and adding seven assists.

The Western Carolina backcourt players held the heralded Marshall point and wing scorers to a collective 7-25 from the floor and 17 points. Marshall was led by Ken Labanowski's 17 points, 15 in the first half, and Robert Price's 11. The loss ended the Herd season with an 11-16 record.

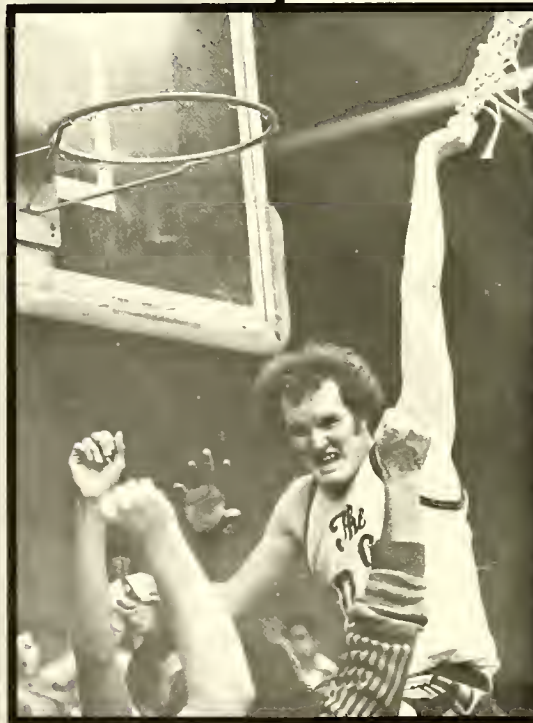

Western raised its record to 14-13 and was fourth in SC tournament play; the team was a preseason seventh place pick.

WCU vs. ASU Saturday

STEVE SURLES
Sports Editor

WCU announced Monday that they would play the WCU-ASU game at 4 p.m. Saturday. The TV coverage will be the first in WCU football history and is only the second for Appalachian State. (They played East Carolina on Regional ABC-TV Thanksgiving Day 1976.) Last week the network had planned to televise the WCU-Furman game but changed its programming at the last minute.

The game will decide the Southern Conference championship. A victory by Western will assure them of their first title in only two years of competition. The game will also be the 43rd WCU-ASU game in the two schools' histories.

Eleven stations, from six states can televise the game as part of ABC's regional Collegiate sports package. WCU's WLOS-TV ABC sports station in Asheville has a production crew of approximately 50 people.

will stay in Franklin and Waynesville. The camera crew will come from WTCG 17 from Atlanta, and Bob Murphy will handle the play-by-play of the game.

Preparations of Whitmire Stadium will be extensive with renovations to the press box and possible construction of special TV camera platforms.

The revenue going to the Southern Conference from the game will be close to $420,000, with the seven Division I-A teams and those eligible for the league championship dividing the sum. WCU's share has been estimated between $80,000-$90,000. Western also has a possibility of gaining General Scholarships money if a player wins the offensive or defensive player awards.

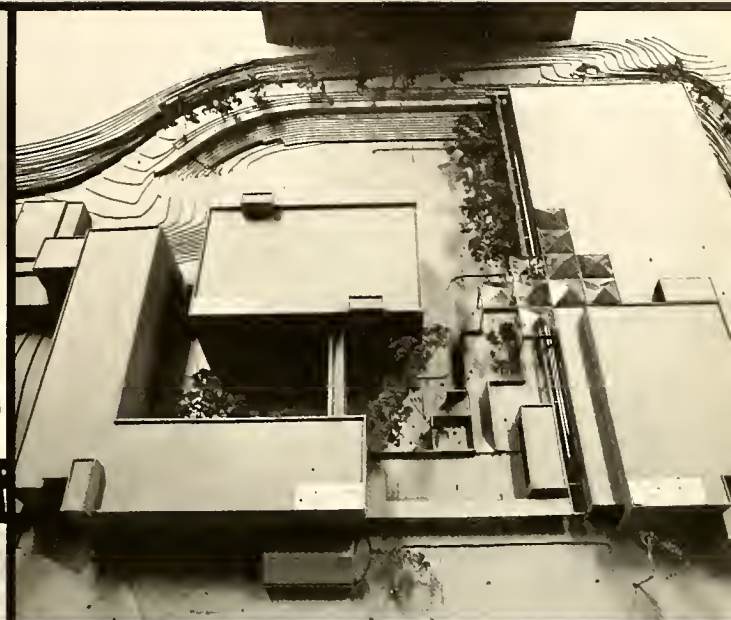

Carolina Sports Information Director Steve Williams says the game is a tremendous thing for the school and the University in general. We'll be on the exposure we'll get. We'll be financially at a better time. We'll be in a better time."

CAMPUS LIFE

Western Round-Up

On September 16, nearly 100 freshmen, along with upper-class student leaders, some faculty, administration and personnel from Student Development gathered for a retreat at Camp Greencove. The retreat, known as Western Round-Up is the second of its kind. It is designed to acquaint freshmen with some of the encounters of college, and enable them to discuss their feelings of what college is about. Some of the weekend activities included sing-alongs, recreational activities, and a square dance.

Competition ran high during Mountain Heritage Day. Sautee, owned by Kay Campany took first place as best looking in the dog show. Winners in the race to benefit Cullowhee Fire Department were: 14 & under — John Hamilton of Cullowhee, 15-29 — Randy Jones of Cullowhee, 30-45 — Tom Klough of Clemson, 46 & up — Kenneth Young — blood of Hendersonville. Women — Kitty Barker of Waynesville. In the mountaineer division, George Maginnis of Cullowhee took first place honors with his mountain overalls. Mike Wagoner won first place in the accuracy division of the tobacco spitting contest in the men's division, while top honors went to Beth Durner in the women's division. For distance, Walter Jones and Stephanie Robinson were first.

Mountain Heritage Day

WCU campus was alive with history as the annual Mountain Heritage Day celebration took place. A day bursting with music, crafts, exhibits, dancing, and food brought folks of all ages. The celebration, held on September 23, offered a unique glimpse into the heritage of the mountains, through the spinning wheels, the wood carvings, the good ole-timey singing and the good ole country eats.

AXA Annual Rafting Race

October 22 was the date of the annual Lambda Chi Alpha Rafting Race. The race, in its tenth year, was highlighted with a true-to-form Lambda Chi beer bust at which fifteen kegs of beer were consumed. In the men's division, the Pi Kappa Alpha's took first place place. The Alpha Xi Delta's took first place in the women's division, while Lambda Chi Alpha and the Delta Zeta's split the coed division.

UCB

Activities Fair

The annual activities fair was held on the UC lawn on October 3. The fair, sponsored by the UCB, provides an opportunity for organization awareness. Recruitment for club members for various organizations was high. Entertainment was provided by Edward, Clark, Flynn, and Jenkins, and the repelling team of the ROTC. Dinner was served on the lawn.

WCU Band Festival

The "Marching Mountaineers" from Tuscola High School received the Grand Champion designation at the Ninth Annual Band Festival that was held at WCU on October 14. Fifteen high school bands from North Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia competed in the festivities. Coordinator of the festival was Joseph R. Scagnoli, WCU director of bands.

Casino Night

The UC Grandroom was transformed into a replica of a Las Vegas gambling casino, as the doors opened for the annual Casino Night. Would-be gamblers filled the house to try their luck at craps, roulette, black-jack, poker, and horse-training. With entertainment supplied by the theatre department, and entertainers from Ghost Town, the evening was highlighted by dancing, piano-playing and good singing.

UCB Funhouse

Ghosts, goblins, henchmen, and witches came together in a united effort on the WCU campus October 29 and 30. These creatures threatening lives and creating frightening scenes, manifested themselves in the annual UCB Fun House. Neck-biting, coffin-filling, and dungeon guarding seemed to be the reason for their gathering. Reports from the surviving WCU students indicated that the Fun House was a success.

Homecoming 1978

Laurie McLendon
Queen

The 1978 Homecoming Court proved to offer some of the true Catamount beauty. Lauren McLendon, a 20 year senior from Titusville, Florida was crowned Homecoming queen. She was sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Others on the court were Julie Cushman, Health and P.E. Club, Patricia Whitson, Pi Kappa Alpha, Kim Youmans, Western Carolinian, Reba Adams, SAGLA, Paula Freeman, Alpha Phi Alpha, and Donna Dickert Alpha Xi Alpha. Following the game, a disco was held. Music was provided by "Point of View". Though the scratch was not as fierce as it could have been in the Furman upset — the Year of the Cat was a winner.

Homecoming '78, celebrated as "The Year of the Cat," got under way full force on Thursday, November 9. Brown Cafeteria could be deemed as the starting place, where a recreated "Animal House" took place. This was the sight of the cafeteria-wide food fight. Saturday morning saw the annual Homecoming parade. The "Deathmobile" from Leatherwood won the best overall float. Before the disappointing loss to Furman, five paratroopers from Fort Campbell, Kentucky dropped the game ball from 12,000 feet. This began the game, which WCU lost with a score of 24-7, before a record crowd at Whitmire Stadium.

Miss Thanksgiving Womanless Pageant

Robert Gentry, sponsored by Circle K, received first place in the Miss Thanksgiving Womanless Pageant. He was selected from ten contestants, each of whom was sponsored by various clubs and organizations around campus. The contest was judged by faculty and administrators. The pageant, an annual event, is held in conjunction with the Social Service Center for Jackson County in Sylva. Canned goods and donations were accepted for admission. These were distributed to needy families by Alpha Phi Omega, who sponsored the pageant. Prizes were donated by local merchants for promotion.

Christmas Bazaar

True mountain heritage came alive at the annual Christmas bazaar held at the university center. An old fashioned bazaar, it attracted people of all ages. Items such as handmade jewelry, pottery, leather works, and plants were available for sale. Exhibits of art work, needlework and quilting caught the eyes of many. Handpainted and handcrafted Christmas ornaments charmed everyone who bustled about in preparation for the holidays.

Madrigal Dinners

The Madrigal dinners, a hit holiday tradition since 1970, again offered festive entertainment and fine food. Complete with a meal of true Elizabethan style, consisting of Cornish game hen, pork roast, green peas, and Christmas pudding, the two evening performance was sold out. Highlighted by dancing bears, jugglers, tumblers, minstrels, and performances by the Madrigal Singers, the event was filled with Christmas spirit. The season was officially opened by a toast led by the Lord of Misrule.

CASINO NIGHT

Dices, cards, and black jack tables filled the University Center as Casino Night once more hit Cullo-whee. . For those who won, it was a joyous evening, for those who bet incorrectly . . . well . . . A disco followed the closing of the casino with good music, and fine dancing in true Vegas style.

AUTCROSS

The autocross held March 24 in the stadium parking lot proved to be very successful. The event was sponsored by The Western Carolinian and WWCU, and was coordinated by David Jackson. Trophies and prizes were supplied by Speedy's pizza. Bob Dula won top time of the day and first place in midget competition. Kit Carawan and David Cashion also won first place in separate competition.

TUBING RACE

Neither rain, nor high water, nor biting wind could halt the souls who dared to enter the annual race down the Tuskaiseegee river. The race, previously scheduled for March 24, was postponed until March 25 due to foul weather. Sunday brought the same weather, but the race was on. Amidst the snow flurries, the crowds cheered the contestants on.

BODIES

The Physique Contest which was sponsored by the WCU Barbell Club brought power lifters from all over the state to participate in the weekend competition. Competition was fierce and those walking away with the trophies well deserved them.

BIKINIS

They goggled and oggled — the crowd at the annual Bikini contest held in the gym in conjunction with the Physique contest. Beauties from around the campus participated in the contest. The girls attending the event had their chance to admire also, as the contest was not limited to females.

BLACK

WEEK

The theme for Black Awareness Week was "Dignity for A Proud People." On Monday, Dr. Tom O'Toole lectured on Afro American Heritage, Tuesday was the Black Night in Theatre, Wednesday was Black Talent and Fashion, Thursday was the revival of Black Heritage Day, Friday was the OES Pageant, Saturday the annual ball was held, and on Sunday, the OES celebrated the anniversary of the concert choir. Phylis Bell was crowned Miss OES. Other contestants were Arweita Coe, Sylvia High, Bonita Conley, Bendatra Wilson, Helen Francis, and Elmerette Jones. Master of Ceremonies for the pageant was Van Wilson.

MATCHES

The TKE boxing matches drew large crowds this year. Participants were accepted by registration. The event was sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. Busted noses, bruised ribs, and black eyes wound up the night.

RIVER

The Tuckaseegee River and Road race was held on April 7. A large crowd turned out, to participate and to watch. The road race was a 6.2 mile run and the river race ran for ten miles.

April 2-7 was observed as ROTC Week here. Deemed as ROTC Week by the governor, the week was full of activities. The highlight of the week came on Saturday, as units from several different schools gathered for drill competition. Units were judged on their performance early in the day. The evening gave way to the first annual military ball. The ball was held in the Grandroom and was attended by a large crowd. Attire was formal. Chancellor Robinson attended the event, as did several other military dignitaries from across the state.

ROTC

SGA elections ran closely this year. The voting participation was about like usual. The candidates put up good races though, and in the presidential election there was a run off between Roger McKinney and Frank Carlton. McKinney emerged the victor in that race. Richard Sullins won the office of vice-president.

SGA ELECTIONS

AWARDS NIGHT

The annual Awards Ceremony was held on April 18 in the UC Grandroom. The ceremonies consisted of the swearing in of the new president and vice-president of SGA. These were Roger McKinney and Richard Sullins. Other awards were presented to Rebecca Nelson for Outstanding female student, Roger Mckinney, Outstanding Male student, Susie Ray and Myron Leonard, Outstanding Citizens of the year. Also, Roger Bacon, William Kane, and Judy Dowell received the Chancellor's Distinguished Teacher's Award.

Albright-Benton Dorm was the site of the first annual Troll Festival on April 7. The festival was only one of the various events that made up the Spring Fest throughout the campus. Marshall Ellis was the designer of the homemade ferris wheel that stole the hearts of the daring crowd. Among the other activities that were a part of the festival were pingpong tournaments and a cookout on the lawn.

TROLL FESTIVAL

Replacing the Hike for Hope, the Dance for Hope was held at the Cathouse in Forest Hills. Sponsored by the Phi Mu Sorority, the dance was well attended. The money collected from admissions went to the Good Ship Hope Organization.

DANCE FOR HOPE

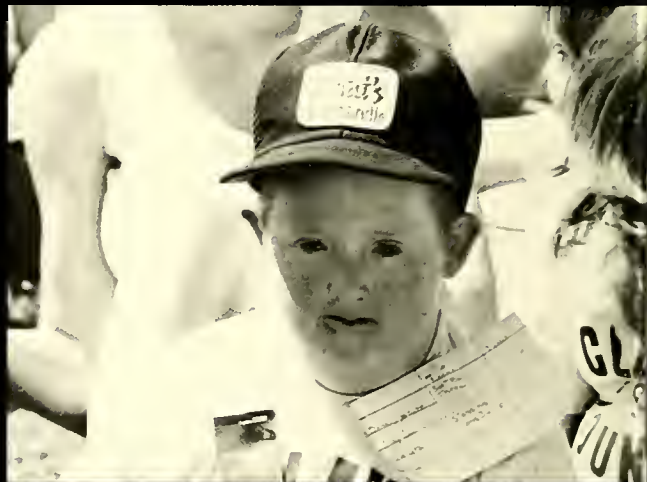

For the Western Carolina special education students, the special olympics was a day of fulfilled activities. The event was a regional one. Relays, races, and other games were a part of the specially planned day for the students.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Chancellor Robinson

Dr. H.F. Robinson has been Chancellor of Western Carolina University for five years. His personable character has made him an unforgettable figure in Western's culture. This year Chancellor Robinson was among 20 American educators invited by the Castro regime to engage in talks concerning education and agriculture. He represented the American Association of State Colleges and Universities in which he chairs the Committee on Agriculture, Renewable Resources and Rural Development. Dr. Robinson is truly an asset to our university in that he honestly cares for the students as well as for the future of Western Carolina University.

GRADUATION 1979

It has been quite a year. I would like to thank the CATAMOUNT staff for putting up with all the hassles we encountered during the proceedings of publication of the 1979 CATAMOUNT. It has been my pleasure to work with you, and I would like to recognize the staff and their contribution to the yearbook. Dr. Quin Constanz, Advisor; Jerry Gay, Yearbook representative; Jeanette Beaudry, Business Manager; Mark Stewart, Lewis Greene, Rick McDaniel, and Eddie Kelley, photographers; Joann Ledford, Sports; Vince Gentry, Classes and Organizations; Amy Jordan and Jimmy Smith, Greeks; Debbie Passmore, Campus Life; Jack Trinks, Campus life and Special Interest; Deborah Honeycutt and Kim Hoyle, Faculty; Eddie Kelley, Campus Life; and Jeanette Beaudry, Ads. Also, a special thanks to Doug Beam (photographer), and Diane Earp (typist) for their help.

I hope this book is not disappointing to anyone. I also hope the students, faculty and administration will continue to give their full support to the CATAMOUNT.

Respectfully,

Sharon S. Carpenter
